Artist P. Buckley Moss to visit Kalona Village Shoppe

KALONA - Renowned artist P. Buckley Moss's new painting, "Springtime at the Chapel," will be released as a limited edition giclée on paper during her show appearance in Kalona, Iowa, Oct. 20-21. The show is being hosted by The Village Shoppe and will be held at the Kalona Historical Village. Moss will be available from 1 to 7 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 20, and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 21, to meet collectors and sign her work.

"Springtime at the Chapel" features the Danforth Chapel, on the University of Iowa's campus.

The Village Shoppe is one of about 300 galleries that carry P. Buckley Moss' art. Each year Ms. Moss travels the country to visit up to 20 of these galleries for special shows. Moss is well known throughout the country for her portrayals of the Amish and tranquil landscapes.

"I love traveling and meeting so many interesting people who truly care about others," Moss said. "I feel like I have a vast network of extended family. I try to focus my art on the positive elements of life, and I find so much inspiration in the wonderful people I meet."

Collectors are invited to bring two previously purchased prints, paintings, or products to the show.

For details on the appearance, call Doris Greiner at 319-656-3853.
